

Call for Abstracts – Flash Presentations for Early Career Researchers

Are you a PhD candidate or Master's student in Statistics or Operations Research in the Netherlands? Share your work at the VVSOR Annual Meeting 2026!

The Flash Presentation Session offers early career researchers a chance to present their projects in a 3-minute talk with one PowerPoint slide. It's a great opportunity to showcase your research, gain feedback, and connect with the Dutch Statistics and OR community.

Event date: March 5, 2026

Location: the Trippenhuis, Amsterdam

Submission deadline: January 18, 2026
